1.0 PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to address political activities for Department of Transportation employees.

2.0 SCOPE

This policy includes procedures applicable to all Department of Transportation employees, of all classifications excluding the Parkways Authority.

3.0 DEFINITIONS

- 3.1 Agency: Any authority, bureau, commission, or Division, or similar cabinet subpart of the Department of Transportation.
- 3.2 Agency Head: Chief executive officer of any agency.
- 3.3 Employee: A person who lawfully occupies a position in a DOT agency and who is paid a wage or salary and who has not severed the employee-employer relationship.
- 3.4 Organization: A hiring unit within the Department of Transportation.

4.0 POLICY

- 4.1 Depending on the type and nature of employment, state law prohibits employees from engaging in certain political activities. These prohibitions apply to all employees and are include the following:
 - A. Employees cannot appoint, promote, demote, or dismiss from any position in the classified service under the Department of Transportation or in any way favor or discriminate against any person in the classified service on the basis of politics.
 - B. Employees cannot seek or attempt to use any political endorsement in connection with any appointment in the classified service.
 - C. Employees cannot use or promise to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence, whether possessed or anticipated, to secure or attempt to secure for any person an appointment or advantage in appointment to a position in the classified service, or an increase in pay or other advantage in employment in any such position for the purpose of influencing the vote or political action of any person, or for any consideration.

- D. Employees in the classified service cannot be a candidate for any national or state paid public office or court of record; or hold any paid public office; or be a candidate or delegate to any state or national political party convention, a member of any national, state, or local committee of a political party, or a financial agent or treasurer.
 - E. Employees in the classified service cannot, directly or indirectly, solicit or receive any assessment, subscription, or contribution, or perform any service for any political party, committee, or candidate for compensation (other than for expenses actually incurred) or in any manner take part in soliciting any such assessment, subscription, contribution, or service of any employee in the classified service.
 - F. Employees in the classified service or employees covered by the Hatch Act (employees whose principal employment is in connection with any activity which is financed in whole or in part by loans or grants made by the United States or federal agency) cannot use their official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election or a nomination for office.
 - G. Employees in the classified service or employees covered by the Hatch Act cannot, directly or indirectly, coerce, attempt to coerce, command, or advise a state or local officer or employee to pay, lend, or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency, or person for political purposes.
 - H. No employee of the Department of Transportation can be a candidate for, or hold any public office, or be a member of any political party committee.
 - I. No employee covered by the Hatch Act can be a candidate for elective office.
- 4.2 These prohibitions are contained in W.V. Code §29-6-20 West Virginia Code | §29-6-20 \(wvlegislature.gov\) and 17-2A-5. West Virginia Code | §17-2a-5 \(wvlegislature.gov\) For most of these provisions, a willful violation is a criminal offense under W.V. Code §29-6-22. West Virginia Code | §29-6-22 \(wvlegislature.gov\) The penalty for a conviction is a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or both a fine and imprisonment.
- 4.3 These prohibitions are contained in W.V. Code §29-6-20 and 17-2A-5. For most of these provisions, a willful violation is a criminal offense under W.V. Code §29-6-22. The penalty for a conviction is a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or both a fine and imprisonment. Additionally, an employee convicted under this section has to forfeit his position and is not eligible for employment by the state for five years.
- 4.4 In addition to the provisions contained above, W.V. Code §17-19-4 West Virginia Code | §17-19-4 \(wvlegislature.gov\) prohibits any Division of Highways employee
